Gary Blount Recognized as a Distinguished Financial Advisor by LPL Financial

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Fort Mill, SC — March 25, 2026 – Gary Blount, Founder, President & Wealth Advisor at Terrier Financial Group in Fort Mill, South Carolina, has earned a place among LPL Financial’s Ascent Club Program for 2026 — a distinction reserved for advisors who set the standard for excellence in financial guidance.*

In today’s evolving financial landscape, clients need more than investment advice. They need a trusted partner who understands their goals, values, and long-term vision. Gary Blount serves individuals, families, and business owners throughout Fort Mill and the greater Charlotte region with comprehensive wealth management services, including investment management, retirement income planning, tax-efficient strategies, estate planning coordination, and risk management.

“Being named to LPL’s Ascent Club is truly an honor,” said Blount. “At Terrier Financial Group, our focus is always on building strong, lasting relationships and delivering thoughtful, personalized guidance. This recognition reflects the trust our clients place in us and our commitment to helping them pursue financial confidence with clarity and discipline.”

“On behalf of the entire LPL team, I’m proud to celebrate Gary for this outstanding achievement,” said Peter Vincent, executive vice president and head of client success for LPL’s advisor channels. “Gary continues to raise the bar, empowering clients to transform aspirations into tangible outcomes and driving meaningful impact in Fort Mill and the surrounding community.”

Blount has partnered with LPL Financial — one of the fastest-growing firms in wealth management — to access advanced technology, research, and operational support designed to enhance client service and streamline his practice.
